A Regimental Court Martial will convene immediately for the Trial of such prisoners as may be brought before the court. to consist of a President and five Members - - Capt Barker President

Lieut Mc Farraher, Lieut Mc Ilvain } Members { Lieuts Parsons, Meason

Recorder Mc Cartney

The Court met agreeable to the above order & after being duly sworn proceeded to the Trial of John Fowler a private in the 6th Reg. on the following charge & Specification - - - - -

Charge 1st Unsoldier like Conduct - - - - - - - - - - - -

Specification 1st In that the said John Fowler while on Drill on the morning of the 16th Inst. behaved in a disorderly manner - - - - - -

To which charge & Specification the prisoner plead not Guilty. - -

Sergeant Fealing being duly sworn says that on the morning of the 16th that he observed that the company performed the Manual exercise worse than ever he had seen them. John Fowler made answer he would not try to do any better.

John Alexander being sworn says that he heard the prisoner say he could not do his exercise any better. The Court after mature deliberation find the prisoner not Guilty and order him to return to his duty. The Court then proceeded to the Trial of Jacob Eyrick a private in Lieut Taylors Compy.

on the following charges & Specifications - - - - -

Charge 1st. Unsoldier like Conduct - - - Specification. In that the said Jacob Eyrick on the Morning of the 16th Inst. came to Lieut Sisks Market and behaved in a disorderly manner and when ordered away by Lieut Sisk made use of insolent language in reply - -

Charge 2d. Disrespect to Lieut Sisk

Specification. In that the said Jacob Eyrick when on Fatigue on the Morning of the 16th Inst. being asked by a Soldier if he had got out of the Guard Tent. replyed that he would not give a dam for any Officer who wold take the part of a Negro. thereby insinuating that Lt Sisk had taken undue advantage of him and making use of other impertinent expressions. To which charges & Specifications the prisoner the Prisoner Plead not Guilty. Lt Evans being sworn says that Jacob Eyrick came in quest of a pass to Lieut Sisks Market and was ordered away by Lt Sisk. heard him speak disrespectfully of Lt Sisk. but did not hear what he said - - -

Question by the Court - - -

What was the busines the Prisoner had at Lt Sisks Marquee answr in quest of a Pass. - - - - - - - - - - - - question why was he refused the pass - - - answr Because it was claimed by Lt Sisks Black Boy. the Witness says to the 2nd specification that he heard the prisoner say when asked by a Soldier if he had got out of the Guard Tent. that he would not give a dam for any officer who wold take a Negros part. and further saieth not - - - - - - - -

The Court after mature deliberation find the prisoner not Guilty of the first charge & first specification & not Guilty of the second charge & first Specification - -

The observations heard by Lt Evans were after he was sometime a prisoner. The Court do not know that they have any bearing on any officer or Non Commissioned Officer which would subject the prisoner to punishment. and order him to return to his duty - - - - - - - -

General Orders } Head Quarters 4th Milty District
Philadelphia Decr 11 1814 }

The Pennsylvania and New Jersey Militia in the service of the United States within the 4th Milty District (excepting the Brigades under the Commands of Brigadier General Cadwallader and Snyder and four Companies of Brig. Genl Eliners Brigade) are to be mustered and inspected according to Law and discharged forthwith - - -

Major General Gaines being ordered to Louisiana the Command of the 4th Military Dist will for the present devolve upon Brigadier Genl Cadwallader of the Pennsylvania Militia. who will report direct to the War office. ——

Colonel Irvine being the Senior Officer of the U.S Army within the district will take post in this City and have their immediate command of the regular Troops. reporting to the Commanding Officer of the District. - - ———

The Major General in taking leave of the Gallant and aspiring Troops he has had the honor to command begs they will accept his best thanks for the preserving Zeal and disciplined steadiness with which they have performed their various duties and maintained amidst many privations the proud preeminence of American patriots and Warriors. To possess the confidence and Friendship of such men. to meet with them the invading foe. to defend with them the soil once stained and consecrated by the Blood of our Fathers. the General would always consider to be an honor of the highest Grade. - - - - - -

He bids them an affectionate farewell. . .

General Orders

The Practice of Officers and Men in the Service, writing or otherwise Communicating any thing in relation to the Strength, the movements, or destination of this Corps, or any part of the army, except to their Commanding Officers, is unmilitary, and oftentimes vitally injurious to the Service: It is positively forbidden. Such communications find their way into the News Papers, and many of our News papers find their way to the Enemy, who is well known to be more adroit in profiting by our Blunders, than by his own Prowess. Contractors, Agents, Settlers, and all followers of the Army, are Caution'd against violating this Order
